The Scandinavian Specialist since 1973

My complete stock includes postal history, postal stationery, classic stamps, booklets, new issues, postmarks, and philatelic literature. I also stock proofs, reprints, essays, and specimens, as well as all other specialities. Among my clients are international exhibitors who rely on my services for both buying and selling. I also enjoy assisting collectors who wish to fill an album or research an issue. Mail, fax, or email a description of your collecting interests. Your inquiry will receive my immediate attention.
